Punjabis feed nation, fought in freedom struggle but repeatedly denied dues: CM Bhagwant Mann in Republic Day speech

Jalandhar . (Agency)

Punjab Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann said Monday that despite making the highest sacrifices during India's freedom struggle and playing a decisive role in filling the country's food granaries, the state continues to face discrimination and denial of its rightful dues.

After unfurling the Tricolour on the occasion of the 77th Republic Day in Hoshiarpur and inspecting the parade, Mann recalled the state's historic role in nation-building. “Punjabis made the most sacrifices during the freedom struggle. When the country was divided, Punjab suffered the most. Punjabis have played a crucial role in the country's progress.”

Highlighting the region's contribution to national food security, the chief minister said the state had supplied 156 lakh metric tonnes of rice to the central pool at the cost of its own natural resources. “We suffered damage to our natural resources for the country's progress. Our groundwater level went down, our rivers became polluted. Our state kept facing injustice repeatedly. Even today, we are forced to take the route of courts.”

‘Forced to struggle to get what is ours'

Mann accused the Centre of withholding Punjab's legitimate financial rights, particularly the Rural Development Fund (RDF). “The very Constitution whose day we are celebrating today clearly mentions the rights of all states. Yet, we are forced to struggle to get what is rightfully ours.”

He also alleged attempts to curtail the state's access to water through the Bhakra Beas Management Board (BBMB). “A conspiracy was hatched to take away Punjab's rights through the BBMB, but we did not allow it to succeed.” Referring to changes in the framework of the Mahatma Gandhi National

Rural Employment Guarantee Act (MGNREGA), the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) leader said the restructuring had directly affected livelihoods. “The Centre did not just change the name of MGNREGA, it altered its entire structure. This has put the livelihoods of Scheduled Caste (SC) people and workers at risk. At present, 19.55 lakh MGNREGA workers are registered in Punjab, of which 12.65 lakh belong to SC families.”

Warning against attempts to divide the state, Mann said Punjab's social harmony had repeatedly been targeted but would never be broken. “Some divisive forces are spreading false propaganda to divide Punjab. But Punjabis will never allow these designs to succeed. Brotherhood in Punjab is strong. Many times, bombs and bullets were used to break this harmony. Punjabis are people who wish well for everyone. Gurbani is played here on lakhs of loudspeakers.”

Fight on against crime, drugs

On law and order, Mann issued a stern warning to criminal elements. “Gangsters should come out of the world of crime. A strict warning is being issued… Otherwise, they will have to face serious consequences. Those who provide them shelter or support will not be spared.”
